

Dakar-Plateau, Senegal Pasadena Sister Cities MEMBERSHIP OPPORTUNITY!

Invitation: We invite you to join the Dakar-Plateau, Senegal Sister Cities Committee. Come be a part of history! Interact internationally and support goodwill. In 1956 President Dwight D. Eisenhower created Sister Cities International to link American cities with cities in other countries to exchange people, ideas, and cultures.

About Us: The Dakar Committee is comprised of various individuals and leaders from the community committed to the outreach and support between Dakar-Plateau, Senegal and Pasadena, California. Our goal is to promote a warm and friendly international relationship between Pasadena and its sister city of Dakar-Plateau, Senegal through personal citizen visits and communicating knowledge of Pasadena's community, homes, and schools. We look to promote active group participation in the exchange of information and cultural and historic programs.
